

THE ITALIANS

Threaten War Against French Workmen.
Rioters Attack the French Embassy in Rome.

Great International Trouble Growing Out of the Struggle at the Italian Works in Algiers—An Apology Wanted From France, and Indemnity.

Rome, Aug. 23.—The troubles growing out of the fighting between French and Italian workmen employed at the salt works at Algiers-Morocco, France, threaten to involve great international complications. It is not in Rome alone that the popular indignation at what the Italians consider a gross breach of international courtesy is finding vent in demonstrations that are evidently intended to compel the government into demanding an apology from France for the attack upon Italians and the compensation of the families of those Italians who were killed.

Riots directed against Frenchmen have occurred in many of the provincial towns, and the situation is considered exceedingly grave. The most serious outbreak of popular feeling against the French occurred in this city late Sunday night, when a mobbing mob attempted to burn the French embassy. Some of the rioters carried cans of kerosene and did not hesitate to openly declare that it was their intention to use it in destroying the embassy.

The authorities, however, had anticipated that an attack might be attempted on the embassy, and a strong force of troops was detailed to guard the building. The rioters, however, attempted to carry out their threats to burn the embassy, notwithstanding the presence of the soldiers. They were ordered to disperse, but refused to do so, whereupon the soldiers charged upon them. The mob held their ground for a time and fought stubbornly. It was not until several charges upon them were made that they began to retreat, fighting all the time. Forty-five rioters were arrested. Many of the mob who were at the forefront of the fight were wounded by sabers that the soldiers used unparaphorically.

The rioting in the provincial towns was only quelled by the use of troops, the police being utterly powerless to handle the mob. Further developments are anxiously awaited.

Some five hundred workmen tried to start an anti-French riot late Monday afternoon, but were charged and dispersed by the police. Several were wounded and many were arrested. The mayor of the city issued a manifesto, in which he exhorts the people to remain calm and urge the government for the settlement of their demands.

The minister of the interior has issued orders to all prefects to their utmost to maintain order and prevent personal injury to French citizens. The disposition of the government toward the anti-French agitators was illustrated Monday at the trials of men arrested during the demonstrations of Saturday and Sunday. Five of the men were obliged to pay small fines for having assaulted a policeman. The rest were released.

Rome, Aug. 23.—Despite the precautions which were taken scores of people are now parading the streets loudly shouting insults against the French, and which the cries "War with France," "Down with France," are clearly distinguished. At Naples the anti-French demonstrations are extremely boisterous and threatening.

Trainsmen Laid Off.
FT. WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 23.—Freight business on the Pennsylvania lines has been so slack during the past four weeks that many trainmen have been laid off indefinitely. Sixty men were dismissed here at Ft. Wayne and Chicago alone. It is understood that the latter affects the entire Pennsylvania system.

Lapsed for Liberty.
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 23.—John Albert, a United States army deserter, escaped by jumping through the window of a west-bound Missouri Pacific train while it was running through the city limits. Albert was in charge of two officers, and was being taken from Washington, D. C., to Ft. Supply, I. T., for trial.

Blow His Brains Out.
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 23.—Mal John C. Lullman, a well-known real estate dealer, and director in the German American savings bank, committed suicide Monday morning by blowing out his brains with a revolver, while standing in front of a saloon at his residence, No. 1101 North Cardinal avenue.

Mrs. Shann Acquitted.
THURSDAY, N. J., Aug. 23.—Mrs. Mattie Shann was Monday morning acquitted of the charge of murdering her son, John Shann. She was charged with having caused his death by administering mercury poison to obtain the insurance upon his life.

His Third Victim.
DANVILLE, Ky., Aug. 23.—Phil Devers shot and killed Fred Parson at a neighborhood gathering on the edge of Casey county. Both are well to do farmers. The trouble grew out of a misunderstanding about a school. This is said to be Devers' third man.

Death Rather Than Pain.
NEWPORT, Ark., Aug. 23.—Saturday night Leo Bentley, a young farmer, seeing that his wife was about to be swallowed last Sunday with fatal effect. His wife breathed her last soon afterward. They are to be buried together.

Roads Turned Over.
DECATUR, Ind., Aug. 23.—The jury in the case of Rhoda Durbin, charged with murdering her infant, was out several hours. The state failed to prove the defendant necessary for a conviction.
